

I am sending this message urging the FCC to adequately compensate providers of video mail from the Interstate Relay Fund, so that this technology will continue to evolve and become widely available for deaf and hard of hearing individuals all across America for whom American Sign Language is a primary language. For too long, deaf and hard of hearing individuals have lived as second class citizens without full enjoyment of today's rapidly advancing technology.